BIVOACS IN JORDANELLE

There were soldiers from Fort Douglas who traveled to Strawberry Valley for war games each summer.

On the way, they would bivouac at the meadow east of American Flag Butte in Jordanelle, near Hailstone.

On occasion, Sam Lawry would find a rare uniform button or shell casing.

The little road side stand belonging to Sam's parents; Thomas Shepherd Lawry and Mary Elizabeth Deeble Lawry quickly increased their sales of picnic goods which made the Lawrys very happy.
